FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GXS and G International Merger Approved by UK Competition Commission

GAITHERSBURG, Md. — September 2, 2005 — GXS, a leading provider of business-to-business (B2B) e-commerce solutions, today announced that the United Kingdom’s (UK) Competition Commission has approved the acquisition of G International’s UK business by GXS’s majority shareholder Francisco Partners. As a result, GXS is now free to complete the merger of the UK businesses of GXS and G International. On August 1, 2005, GXS announced global completion of the merger with G International, subject to maintaining separate operations in the UK pending completion of the Competition Commission’s inquiry.

“We are happy with the findings of the Competition Commission, and look forward to working to maximize opportunities brought about by the merger of GXS and G International,” said Gary Greenfield, president and CEO of GXS. “With the completion of the merger as of August 1, 2005, the company began operations as a single entity worldwide with the exception of the UK. As of today, we will be doing the same in the UK. We will work aggressively to allow our customers to realize the benefit of this combined, global leader in the B2B supply chain.”
